

LAXMAN KHANNA
Legal Executive

Education

LLB Law, University of Tasmania,
2018

Bar Qualifications

Laxman is in the process of being admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor in Singapore.

Language Proficiency

Laxman speaks English and Hindi

Areas of Expertise

Laxman is a Legal Executive and has successfully cleared his part B examination conducted by Singapore Institute of Legal Education and is looking forward to being called to the Singapore Bar in August 2022. He is currently assisting in corporate advisory work which encompasses advising clients on banking & finance, commercial contracts, compliance and employment matters.

Prior to joining Collyer, he interned in various law firms in Singapore and completed part of his traineeship in the corporate department focusing on company formation, commercial contracts and mergers & acquisitions. Besides that, he is adept at legal research and experienced in providing range of corporate legal and secretarial services dealing with investments and financial arrangements.

Interests

Laxman is an amateur master chef who enjoys cooking meals for his friends and family. In his free time, he also explores the underwater world through his newly found hobby of scuba diving.